Rules and Regulations (Based on Florida Rules for Admission of Animals for Exhibits

<https://www.flrules.org/gateway/ChapterHome.asp?Chapter=5C-4>

All goats must have certificates of veterinary inspection and a scrapie premise number (call 352-333-3120 or visit www.aphis.usda.gov for information). Exhibitors must have a health certificate current within 90 days for goats that originate in the State of Florida and 30 days for goats from out of state. Goats that originate in the State of Florida no longer need to be tested for tuberculosis or brucellosis. Goats originating from out of state must have been tested for tuberculosis and brucellosis within 30 days of the opening day of the fair.

Eligibility

1. Only bona fide and currently active 4 H members (8 years old or older as of September 1, 2010), and FFA members are eligible to enter. Anyone having currently graduated from high school or dropped out of high school shall be ineligible to enter the show. Both FFA Chapter and 4H Club entries will be accepted. Chapters and Club must be valid clubs and in good standing with their local & state organizations.
2. Animals must be in possession and care of the exhibitor as of September 20, 2010.
3. Animals must be owned and registered in the name of the exhibitor, their parents or the herd name. Leasing an animal will be accepted. Date of ownership, sale or lease must be on or before September 20,2010.
4. This goat show is sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association ( ADGA) for the following breeds: Alpine, La Mancha, Nigerian Dwarf, Nubian, Recorded Grade and AOP (All Other Purebred).The ADGA rules shall govern. The Youth 4H/FFA Junior and Senior Dairy Goat Show is not separately sanctioned.
5. Order of Show: Nigerian Dwarf. Alpine, La Mancha, Nubian, AOP (All Other Purebred) and Recorded Grade.
6. The Official Registration certificate is required for all animals. A duplicate application for registry stamped by the ADGA office is permissible for all animals under 6 months of age. The registration certificate or stamped duplicate application must be available to show secretary before the start of the show.

Entries

1. Entries must be postmarked on or before October 1st, 2010. There is no entry fee for the 4H/FFA show. Late entries will be charged $5.00 per animal and will be accepted postmarked by October 18, 2010. All entries must be complete or they will not be accepted. Entries must be sent to the St. Johns County Fair, Livestock Department, 5840 State Road 207, Elkton, FL 32033.

2. Youth exhibitor and parent must sign the 'Exhibitor Release and Indemnification' form, which is available on the fair website stjohnsfair.com and has to be notarized and sent with the entry.

4. Each youth can show a total of 6 animals, only one animal per class. Youth have to show their own (leased) animals.

5. Available pens will be determined by postmark on entry form (first come, first served basis). The St. Johns County Fair reserves the right to limit entries based on pen and space availability. Youth exhibitors signing up later than October 1st, 2010 have to bring their own pens. There is a pen fee of $5.00/ pen for youth not participating in the Open Show. Pens are 8 x 8 ft and can hold 5-6 jr. or max 4 sr. does (big size).

Optional pen clean-out is available for a fee of $5.00, if you are unable to clean your pen before leaving.

5. Entries which help to sanction a breed submitted after October 1st, 2010 will not be considered late.

6. Youth exhibitors entering the Open Dairy Goat Show must meet all Open Show deadlines, and must pay the regular $8.00 entry fee per animal and $5.00 pen fee.

General

1. Due to health and safety issues, no cooking will be allowed in the barn; food and drink may not be consumed in the animal areas; and exhibitors should wash hands after handling animals.

2. All animals must be dehorned and tattooed or else will be disqualified.

3. It is the responsibility of the exhibitors to see that their animals are fed, watered and milked daily for the duration of the Fair. Failure to maintain animals and exhibit to acceptable standards and/or failure to cooperate with Fair Officials will result in premium forfeiture and immediate dismissal from the Fairgrounds.

4. Bedding is not provided. The ground is soft clay, if exhibitors want to put down bedding it should be hay or straw, no shavings. There will be an area for soiled bedding.

5. Water in St. Johns County is brackish.

6. Nigerian Dwarf exhibitors may have to bring extra fencing material, slots of pens are too wide.

7. Exhibitors must supply their own show supplies.

8. Exhibitors are recommended to bring their own wheel barrows and rakes. Water hoses will be provided.

9. No dogs allowed in the barn.

10. Only animals being shown at the St. Johns County Fair are permitted on the Fairgrounds.

11. Any person who violates any of the general rules or special rules as posted in this premium list will forfeit all privileges and premiums won.

12. Overnight sleeping will be allowed in the tack pens, providing materials are not set up before the barn is closed at 11:00 pm and put away by 8:00 am. There will be keys for the restrooms locked during the night.

13. All tack supplies, etc. must be kept within the tack space (i.e.: chairs, milk stanchions, wheel barrows, etc.) cannot be put into the public aisles/walkways. Area in front of pens must be kept clean.

14. The St. Johns County Fair will provide no feed or hay. There will be hay for sale.

15. Milk will be dumped in the provided milk dump.

16. The costume contest is not mandatory but all ages are encouraged to participate.

Arrival

1. An accredited state inspector will be available to check the unloading of the animals between 10:00 AM – 2:00PM, Friday, October 22, 2010. After animals are checked in by the state inspector, members of the show committee will assign pens.

2. NO ANIMALS WILL BE UNLOADED ON THE FAIRGROUNDS UNTIL THEY HAVE BEEN INSPECTED BY THE INSPECTOR! NO EXCEPTIONS!
